日本全國勞動界大示威運動

無產階級漸次覺悟
政府應付已感無術

東北之運動 二月一日青島合同，仙台印刷，盛岡聯合會，青島市公會堂開會，與全國惡法反對運動相呼應，並頒發宣言，以期政府撤回該法案。北海之運動 頭等勞動組合協議會，開第四次大會，及反對三法案，並決定實行辦法，向各地遊說，尤以札幌無產團體，開會反對時，不畏風雪，聽衆齊至。札幌無產團體，開會反對時，不畏風雪，聽衆齊至。札幌無產團體，開會反對時，不畏風雪，聽衆齊至。

關西之運動

日本勞動組合會議成績優良者，首推大阪。七日與東京同時示威運動，於大阪各要所，開會演說，徹底反對該法案之成立。並派代表赴東京阻止該會議通過，祇因演說過激，早被警察解散。神戶之運動 神戶市成立勞動立法反對委員會，及神戶地方組合會議，並組織具體辦法七條。

京都之運動

京都地無產團體，組織無產團體，亦於七日開會反對，各團體齊集京都車站前廣場，即向各主要公署示威遊行，並高呼三萬餘聲。當夜於青年會館，開反對惡法大演說會，聯絡關西各團體，上京請願，徹底反對。

九州之運動

九州八縣鐵工廠，在日，勞動界最有威權，此次風潮，久有計畫，於二月五日，亦開示威大會，據九州聯合會之大塚君所云，頗具規模。綜上觀之，日本政府，以三六條一千餘字之法案，竟敢沐浴，將幾百萬貧窮肉，而欲於帝國主義資本家之會上，要求笑納。而博一己之微利生涯，致令各處之無產者，奔走呼號，而無可告。官憲資本家之抑壓苦民，蔑視人道，誠堪痛恨。究之如何解決，吾人當靜觀之可也。

滬總工會反英運動

上海通訊云：上海總工會昨發表宣言，表示反對，原文其長，茲錄其要如下：英帝國主義之侵略我國，為時甚早，而其侵略之野蠻殘酷，尤非其他各國所及。國主主義所通謀，長江外灘巡邏，以至五卅事件，沙基慘案，無役不中。英帝國主義之侵略我國，為時甚早，而其侵略之野蠻殘酷，尤非其他各國所及。國主主義所通謀，長江外灘巡邏，以至五卅事件，沙基慘案，無役不中。

反抗英日討吳張之熱烈

州法領交回時。當卽日將該武器全部交回華官接收。觀以上所述則可知交回之期。當不在遠矣。此爲中法間新交涉之經過也。李濟琛既得此項具體辦法。卽電中國中央政府。請根據第三項。在廣州方面交涉。國民政府經卽議決。令交涉員傅秉常負責辦理。傅氏業具照會文。於五日送達廣州法領事府。開始交涉。但法領事以此案尚須致電廣州灣查詢情形。關於答覆。不無展延時日。大約一二旬後。總可待完確解決辦法也。

香港政府對二次罷工之恐慌

兇獍面目業已完全揭破
各行商務皆受重大打擊

付。

香港通信：(一)邇來香港政府對於第二次大罷工風潮，極為恐慌。除出各種種種手段恐嚇華人外，並下令大捕有職業之華人，先後被其逮捕者在百人以上。如廣州機器總工會前任職員鄭韻等九人，因私事與港探親，亦被捕去入獄。聞其出此種陰險手段，據個中人謂，恐鄭等有運動工人離港，故將其逮捕云。(二)前任機器總會幹事，現任粵港運送落貨總工會執行委員長鄧漢興，擬赴滬考察機器工業工作，路過香港，稍事逗遛，亦幾被港差捕獲者數次。幸鄧氏機警，立即離港，不致被害。現聞已令將鄧氏等通緝，入港華人，以港政府下令任意逮捕華人甚為憤激，現正設法對付。

香港通信云：(一)自第二次大罷工實現後，香港政府大起恐慌，自本月一日起，即宣告停班，加緊戒嚴。並發出通告兩紙，第一紙謂如能拿獲及罷工指揮證確鑿者，即賞銀五百元，拿獲收派罷工傳單證確鑿者，即賞銀五百元。第二紙謂如能拿獲散派罷工傳單證確鑿者，即賞銀五百元，共計一千元。並分派便裝英探多名，在各處茶樓酒肆，開有談及罷工事情者，即行逮捕，並於晚間分派大批英差武裝出巡，即停泊九龍貨倉海面之英艦，亦以探海燈向各處照射，下環水師軍械廠內加入大批英差，監視廠內工人，不得自由行動。至於太古船塢工廠及篤也工廠，亦座，上樓懸掛以大會四字。左右懸紅對聯一副，詞曰：「聯合世界士之弱小民族，打倒英日帝國主義，幫助國民黨討伐直系奉系軍閥張作霖吳佩孚」到會開聲，有中國國民黨區山市黨部，京奉鐵路總工會，開濠五礦總工會，京奉各路總工會唐山分會，開濠五礦總工會，唐山分會，中國濟難會，唐山婦女協會等四十餘團體，人數近萬餘人。約二鐘，公推黃志鎮，郭開泰，梁鶴鳴三人為主席團，輪流主席。首由黃志鎮宣布開會，及報告開會宗旨，略謂：中國歷來內亂，均係帝國主義者在後操縱，我們要打倒帝國主義，首先要打倒帝國主義的工具——軍閥。現在我們正在反抗軍閥，廣州出兵北伐是援助北方的民衆與國民黨，而英國帝

行，即在北方，使開灤礦局停工以援國民軍後防，實行援助張作霖之陰險手段，十分可惡。繼由京奉路工會代表梁君演講，略謂：大會的意義已有入說過了。我們很明白英國人為什麼要封鎖廣東，但是，要知道這個，我們須先明白現在廣州政府工人農商人學生是什麼樣子。

現在我來講。廣東自從打倒為英國帝國主義及陳廉伯所利用的商團兵及反動軍閥劉楊之後，即完全成為真正代表工農商學及民衆利益的政府。一切苛捐雜稅，完全取消，烟絲絕跡。其一切舉動。純粹是代表民意。但帝國主義者見了此種情形，故常造謠，說是共產黨的政府，係與帝西北國民軍之諱一樣。但是當魯蘇為張吳佔住的時候，何等可怕，婦女不敢出門，否則必受淫害。

FENG EXPECTED TO LEAVE RETIREMENT AND TAKE CHARGE OF OPERATIONS AGAINST WU

Look For Appointment As Pacification Commissioner Of Chihli, Honan And Shensi In Few Days

Appeals Have Effect; Shantung Not Included In Feng's New Province, As Objective Is Wu; Sun And Yueh Appeal

Chung Mei
The appointment of Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang as Pacification Commissioner of Chihli, Honan and Shensi, will appear in a few days, according to the "World Morning Post," which asserts that the continued appeals for emergency from retirement have caused the Marshal to express his willingness to do so.

The same source reports that at a military conference held in Kalgan upon receipt of the war news from Honan, it was decided that General Chang Chih-kiang should lead 40,000 men to reinforce the Kuominchun in that province.

According to this report, General Chang will come to the capital in a day or so to confer with the various leaders before moving his men down the Peking-Hankow Railway.

Shantung not Included

Asiatic
Kalgan, March 2. — Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang has expressed his willingness to accept the high post of Pacification Commissioner for Chihli, Honan and Shensi provinces with a view to enabling him to settle his accounts with Marshal Wu Pei-fu on the Peking-Hankow Railway. Shantung will not be included in the new sphere of Feng Yu-hsiang chiefly because the province is held by the Fengtien leaders while the recent mandate only ordered the suppression of Wu Pei-fu by the Kuominchun.

Sun And Yueh Urge

Chung Mei
Peking, March 4. — Appointment of Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang as Pacification Commissioner of Chihli, Honan, Shantung and Hupeh, is urged upon the Chief Executive by Tupsun Sun of Chihli and Yueh of Honan in a telegram dated the 2nd.

"With the retirement from public life of Marshal Feng," says the telegram, national evil does are in existence and confusion and disturbance constantly occur in the political situation while wars and calamities can be seen all over Chihli, Shantung, Honan and Hupeh.

"It stings our heart to think of the suffering and distress faced by the people. Thus it is requested that Your Excellency make Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang the Pacification Commissioner of these four provinces, so as to relieve the innocent sufferers and to end the national misfortune."

Police were massed around the Parliament building in anticipation of a demonstration against the Government financial project.

ASK SCHOOL HOLIDAY IN HONOR OF DEATH OF DR. SUN YAT-SEN

Chung Mei

The first anniversary of the death of Dr. Sun Yat-sen will be marked on Friday, March 12th, by the local Kuomintang members who have requested the Ministry of Education to give a holiday to all students in the capital.

A speakers stand will be erected in front of the Wu Men and leaders of the party and invited guests will address the crowd.

Gen. Lu Chung-lin Holds Battle Line South of Tientsin

Claims Victory in Attacks on Chihli-Shantung Forces at Machang, Hsing Chi and Tsing Hsien

Chung Mei

With the fall of Tsangchow early Wednesday morning, Commander Lu Chung-lin left Tientsin for the front at the same time giving instructions for the offensive against the Shantung Chihli army.

Fighting today is reported to have continued against the enemy caught between the Kuominchun lines at Tung Kuan Tun and Tsangchow, which was taken Wednesday.

The Chihli Shantung troops concentrated at Machang, Hsing Chi and Tsing Hsien were the objects of the Kuominchun attacks yesterday and the latter claim victory, in which many of the enemy are claimed to have died in the river, while large quantities of military stores were taken.

Little Opposition

Reuter
The Kuominchun headquarters announce that the Kuominchun cavalry, recently reported to have left Paoing travelling in the direction of Tamingfu, passed through Kaoyang, Jenchiu and Hsiehfu and entered Tsangchow, where they met with little opposition from a detachment of General Li Ching-lin's troops.

NEW PROLETARIAT PARTY ORGANIZED BY JAPANESE LABORMEN AND FARMERS

Tokyo

Tokyo, March 4. — A very prolonged debate on various subjects marked the occasion of the first gathering of the preparatory committee for the creation of the new proletarian political party, which took place yesterday at the Central Public Hall, at Osaka. The delegates of the Japan Peasant Federation, the Japan General Federation of Labour, the Government Employees' Union and several other labour organizations participated in the meeting.

It is understood that the first meeting was held in strict secrecy, the gathering being terminated in complete agreement among all delegates participated through compromise stand taken by the Japan General Federation of Labour delegates.

The meeting agreed upon creating a sub-committee which is to be entrusted with the task of Won't Deal Direct With Canton Now, Amery Tells Com.

Secretary of State For Colonies Answers Question In Parliament

Reuter

London, March 3. — Drawing attention to the fact that many questions affecting the interests of Hongkong can only be dealt with by the Canton authorities, Mr. Amery in the House of Commons today whether the Government would sanction direct communication of the Government of Hongkong with the Chinese authorities at Canton.

Lt.-Col. L. C. M. S. Amery (Secretary of State for the Colonies) stated that he did not consider that such arrangements were at the present time necessary or desirable. He added that if and when negotiations to terminate the boycott are resumed the Governor will doubtless suggest the best manner to facilitate them.

Probe Bribe Rumor To Diet Mem. By Houses Of Ill-fame

Scandal In Japanese Diet Over Removal Of Osaka Licensed Quarter

Tokyo

Tokyo, March 3. — Rumors are afloat in connection with the removal of licensed quarters in Osaka that several members of the Diet had been induced to act in favour of the houses of ill-fame against the municipality of Osaka with promises of money gifts. Alarmed by this sensational discovery, the Lower House created a special inquiry committee in order to sift at the bottom of the matter. So far, it is understood that Messrs. Tahara, Tanomugi, Miki and Muraoka, of the Kenseikai, and Iwasaki of Seiyukai will be called before the committee to explain the matter personally in connection with the case.

Wang To Hold F.O. Folio In New Cabinet

Find Men To Fill Cabinet Posts At Last; Chia Teh-yao To Be Formal Premier; All But Justice Ministry Settled

Chung Mei

A new Cabinet has been at last got together under Chia Teh-yao as Premier and it was expected that the mandate will appear last evening. Outstanding in the new body will be Dr. C. T. Wang who is retained in the Foreign Office, although Dr. Yen had been suggested. The latter apparently desires to leave for his post of Minister to London.

The New List

The cabinet list consists of the following:

Premier and War Minister
General Chia Teh-yao
Foreign Affairs
Dr. C. T. Wang
Interior
Mr. Chu Yang-kwang
Navy
Admiral Tu Hsi-kuei
Agriculture and Commerce
Mr. Yang Wen-kai
Education
Dr. Ma Chun-wu
Communications
Mr. Kung Hsin-chan
Finance
Mr. Ho Teh-lin
Justice
Unsettled.
Chief Cabinet Secretary
Mr. Teng Han-shiang

Kuo Wen

It was the original intention of Marshal Tuan Chi-jui to give the portfolio of justice to Mr. Tang Yi, but when this was known local second Kuominchun leaders got into touch with First Kuominchun leaders and asked them to intervene on behalf of Mr. Kuo Hsia or Mr. Lu Hsin, saying that it did not look well for the Honan Tupan to be unrepresented in the Cabinet just because he had suffered reverses in Honan. It is understood that this objection prevailed and that either Mr. Kuo or Mr. Lu will be given the portfolio of justice.

All the new ministers are well known to the public with the exception of Mr. Yang Wen-kai and Mr. Chu Yang-kwang. Mr. Yang is an adherent of General Sun Chuan-fang, and it is believed, his inclusion will cause the Nanking general to support the present regime in Peking. Mr. Chu was formerly Civil Governor of Chekiang and has served as Director of the Bureau in Charge of Overseas Chinese. The Chief Cabinet Secretary is a former secretary to General Lu Hsiang-shang and enjoys the confidence of Marshal Tuan Chi-jui.

German Nationalist Split; One Wing For Unity With Russia

Real Cause Of Split Is Hatred Of Dia - Hard Nationalists For League And Locarno; Hold For Russia VS. Europe

United Press

Berlin, Feb. 3. — (By Mail) Dissension is rife among the German nationalists. The Young German Order, comprising some hundred thousand members, has broken out of the fold and while still hovering around the nationalist corral, is expected definitely to join the republican ranks.

The immediate cause of this split is trivial enough. The president of the Young German Order, ex-lieutenant Walter Mahraun, ventured to declare some time ago that "one's political antagonist need not necessarily be a scoundrel. This statement evoked a storm of protest in the nationalist camp, notably from the rival "Steel Helmet" organization. Mahraun promptly took up the challenge. Speaking at a public meeting, he attacked the nationalist cause. Without mincing words, Mahraun told his nationalist critics, in effect:

"Don't try to tell me that your nationalism is animated by idealistic motives. German nationalism is merely a question of hard cash. Why is the nationalist party so powerful? Because it has money enough to buy up the press and chloroform the people with its nationalist phrases! And the nationalist organizations? They are being supported by the industrial captains at whose bidding they must act!"

Suspect Mahraun

Such language, unparalleled in the annals of post-war German nationalism, strengthened the suspicion of the ultra-nationalists that Mahraun must have become

Growing Confidence In Russian Trade Shown By Contracts

Favorable Terms Given Soviet State Trading Companies By European Firms

Tass

Moscow, March 3. — The growing confidence of foreign firms in the State Trading institutions of Soviet Russia and in the possibilities of the Russian market are indicated by the contracts just concluded by the State Trading Department of the R.S.F.S.R. with a number of foreign firms. By these contracts, the firms mentioned undertake to deliver the goods free of freight and insurance to their destination in Russia. The payment of the goods is to be made in instalments, the first 50 per cent of value to be paid six months after delivery, the second instalment of 25 per cent of the value is to be made during the next six months and the final payment is to be made at the end of eighteen months. The firms agree to take back unsold goods at the end of this period, themselves meeting the cost of transportation.

Contracts on these terms for the supply of agricultural machines have been concluded with the German firms of Henschel, Lantz, Rudolph Sack, Fleiter, Hassen, Krupps and the Heit Company, amounting altogether to Rs. 10,780,000. In addition to the above, similar contracts have been concluded with French, Austrian, Swedish, Polish and Norwegian firms for the supply of electrical accessories, measuring instruments, surgical instruments, dyes, etc., amounting to Rbs. 10,360,000.

CHAMBERLAIN IS REALISTIC; ADMITS OTHERS THAN BRITAIN PRESENT AT TARIFF PARLEY

Reuter

London, March 3. — Replying in the House of Commons today to a suggestion that the British representatives at the Tariff Conference in Peking should be impressed with the necessity of expediting a decision on the interim proposals, Sir Austen Chamberlain referred to the complexity of the points at issue and the obscurity of the situation in Peking. He thought that an early decision was not to be expected. He pointed out that thirteen powers were represented and that the decisions did not rest in the hands of the British delegation alone.

Mr. Harmon asked whether the Government holds the Peking Government responsible for the Canton boycott and able to restrain it.

Sir Austen Chamberlain enumerated the British Government's representations and said that he saw no useful purpose in considering whether the Central Government was technically responsible, since in practice it was notorious that they at present did not exercise effective control at Canton.

Chancellor Asks Guarantees; Locarno Treaties Threatened By Move To Admit More Nations, Is Warning

Reuter

London, March 4. — In an address which contained the definition of the principles of Germany's participation in the League of Nations, Chancellor Luther appealed to the Allied Governments to clear away the doubts existing about the future composition of the League's Permanent Council.

The Chancellor pleads that guarantees must exist on which Germany can rely before she is to be elected at the forthcoming session and this must be decided prior to the German delegation's departure from Berlin next Friday and prior to its arrival in Geneva.

Germany May Decline
Unless this assurance is granted Herr Luther is afraid that Germany will decline to enter the League.

In this connection, he said: "It is incredible that through ignoring our standpoint in connection with additional seats in the League Council the greatest political achievement of the last year should be permitted to be destroyed and the prospects opened by Germany's collaboration be nullified. Germany does not alone hold these views."

"As a member of the League, Germany desires to serve all communities and peoples; but in furthering the League's interests, Germany will not permit herself to be surpassed by any other state."

"The suggestion for changes in the League's Council after Germany had applied for admission threatens to endanger the whole work which Locarno achieved through co-operative efforts last year. In all discussions it was self-evident that no important changes would take place in the League's structure before our entry. That intentions of such changes exist came to our notice only through accident," Dr. Luther concluded.

English Debate Tomorrow

Reuter

London, March 3. — In the House of Commons today Mr. Ramsay MacDonald (Leader of the Opposition) asked whether the Premier had any statement to make regarding the business before the Council of the League of Nations next week, particularly as regards the claims of certain states to permanent seats on the Council.

Mr. Baldwin replied that he proposed tomorrow to move the adjournment of the House in order that the Foreign Secretary might make a full statement and to allow time for discussion.

In preparation for tomorrow's debate on expansion of the League Council, the Liberal group, headed by Mr. Lloyd George, has tabled a motion urging that the occasion of admitting Germany to the League and of according her a permanent seat on the Council should not be used to effect any other changes in the Council.

Soviet Russia And Nationalist China

In registering yesterday an outbreak of an anti-Soviet epidemic in the Imperialist-diseased section of the Metropolitan press, the official organ of the Japanese Legation in Peking states that while, "as a matter of fact, the majority of the Chinese press in the Metropolitan district is anti-Communist," the "Ching Pao" and the "Kuo Min Hsin Pao" (of which the People's Tribune is the English section) "are the only two Chinese papers that adopt a friendly tone toward the Communists and their Russian masters." And after referring to the fact that the "Kuo Min Hsin Pao" arrogates to itself the function of interpreting the views and feelings of the Chinese masses, the North China Standard notes that "neither the Chinese section nor the English edition of the paper has carried any report bearing on the mysterious disappearance of Mr. Chin Shih-sheng in Irkutsk, although several nationalist organizations in the Capital have gone on record as favouring a strong stand against Soviet Russia." Having drawn attention to our omission to share the marionette excitement of the anti-Soviet subsidised papers over this mare's nest, the Japanese sheet suggests that it is difficult to say "whether this silence on the part of the organ of 'national opinion' is due to some embarrassing connections with the local Soviet Embassy or to its conviction that Nationalist China takes no interest in the case of a Chinese resident in Soviet Russia." And in a final sentence in the tail of the Japanese organ's screed, there is something of a disclosure of the role which the Japanese Legation proposes for the "Chen Pao" whose relations with Foreign Imperialism are beginning to be a subject of speculation. "If it is because," says the Japanese paper, of some embarrassing connection with the Soviet Embassy that "the editorial voice of the paper is suppressed, then let it not pose as an interpreter of Chinese nationalist opinion, which function, we trust, the "Chen Pao" is in a much better position to fulfil."

The Anti-Soviet Gang

While we do not doubt that the interests of the Japanese Legation and of Foreign Imperialism as a whole would be well served by the assumption by the "Chen Pao" of the role of an "interpreter of Chinese nationalist opinion", we will continue not merely to pose but to act decisively as the authentic interpreter of the Nation's mind and its new vision of a freedom and sovereignty that shall restore to China her ancient supremacy as a civilising and conquering force in the affairs of nations. It is because we interpret the true mind of Nationalist China that we are wholly irrespective either to the flatteries or to the flouts of the Japanese and other agents of alien Imperialism, and so keep ourselves free from the anti-Soviet contagion which is infecting the so-called "majority of the Chinese press in the Metropolitan district" and the anti-Nationalists and traitors whose slave-mind is dominated by the foreign press and Imperialist ideology. And, more specifically referring to the alleged "mysterious disappearance of Mr. Chin Shih-sheng in Irkutsk", it has appeared to us that much of the agitation about it has been a mock and sham outburst created largely by certain people who, for mercenary and ignoble motives, are swift to seize and exploit any and every real or imaginary incident to attack Soviet Russia. The gang may be roughly ticketed into (a) Chinese hirelings, including the venal section of the "Chinese press in the Metropolitan district", in receipt of foreign gold mainly through the British controlled Association to combat Soviet propaganda in China, (b) Ruble speculators who are trying to direct pressure on the Soviet delegation to the Sino-Soviet Conference in order to secure payment of worthless ruble notes, including agents of Chang Tso-lin, and (c) Expelled members of the Kuomintang who wish to embarrass Soviet Russia as the acknowledged friend of the Nationalist Government at Canton where loot and plunder are no longer available to them. And these three categories of the anti-Soviet Gang will be found, either singly or together in alliance with alien Imperialism, in the present as well as in every future "Chinese agitation" against Soviet Russia as long as the great and historic conflict goes on between Nationalist China with its Soviet ally, representing the principle of freedom and equality, and Foreign Imperialism as it expresses itself and all its work and pomp in the Unequal Treaties.

Atrocities Of White-Skin Peoples

On this view of the situation, it is quite obvious why the Japanese Legation's organ has been moved to feature and signalise in its issue yesterday the anti-Soviet "campaign" which the "Yi Shih Pao" has initiated in its columns. The paper admits that it "is organized by various religious institutions" which means, according to the North China Standard, that the sheet is "owned and supported by a party of American Catholic priests." The paper of the American padres invites "full information regarding the atrocities committed by the Russian Communists during the past years and also the plight of the Russian people as a result of the introduction of the Communist regime" in order that the "Chinese Communists may know what is in store for China if they are bent on Bolshevizing China, while our non-Communists will be enabled to renew their strength in their crusade against the Red danger."

We have to remind the priest-owners of the Yi Shih Pao that if they are out searching for "atrocities", the annals of Roman Catholicism are packful of them. Let them turn over the pages of the Papacy or of the history of the Holy Inquisition, and their

German Economic Crisis Over, Is Claim; Russia asks Credit

Leipzig Fair, the Barometer Of German Industry, Brings Optimistic Speeches; Russia Can Help, Says Spokesman

Antioch
Berlin, March 3. — President von Hindenburg was given a hearty welcome upon arriving at Leipzig to visit the Fair. The Minister of Economy Curtius addressed a gathering of prominent politicians, foreign ambassadors and industrial leaders assembled in the hall of the Fair, saying he considered Leipzig Fair a barometer of Germany's economic condition and that the present crisis was as good as past. "Germany, Europe's heart, must be sound before the Continent can recover," he declared.

Russia Advises

The Soviet Ambassador Krestinski while visiting the Leipzig Fair, declared Germany's present economical condition can only be improved through winning new markets. Russia which is the world's best purchaser and payer can help Germany, but added that Russia could not pay cash and could only buy where she gets credit. He expressed the hope that the German government would solve the credit question which would provide German machine factories with enough work for many decades to come.

Japan Diet Faces Still More Snags

Labour Law Expected to Give Trouble; Also Policy Toward China; Careful Steering Seen as Necessary

Tokyo
Tokyo, March 3. — Although the Government has steered her course discreetly without much mishaps through the session of the Diet so far, by tactfully dealing with the Seiyuhontō, the parliamentary atmosphere shows that there are still much difficulties in the way until the Diet session terminates. While the Government is facing a very complicated issue centering around the labour union law, which has invited not only the disfavor of the labouring class but the adverse comment even from the Government party, the Upper House is putting up a severe fight against the Government on more than one issue. The most difficult obstacle now presenting itself in the Upper House session is in connection with the reform of the normal school education, the majority going so far as expressing its demand for the resignation of Education Minister Okada.

Other government bills which are not well received by the Upper House circles include the abolition of the county system and the naval craft construction, and the government China policy. In view of these state affairs, the Government will have to play most wisely in dealing with the many complicated matters now being laid before the Upper House.

eyes will read of things done in the name of Holy Church which, in horror and stark poignancy, transcend the worst excesses "committed by the Russian Communists" when fighting with their backs to the wall against an Allied World athirst for their blood. And what more terrible atrocities can these American priests crave for than all the devil's work in the war waged by the great Christian Powers of Europe and America in Flanders' Fields? While humane men cannot but condemn the excesses of the Bolshevik Revolution even where inherent human weakness or state policy may have seemed to justify them, we Chinese see no essential difference, in moral turpitude or racial character, between the "atrocities committed by the Russian Communists" and the atrocities committed by other white-skin peoples which are recorded in the history of Europe's "progress and civilization", more particularly in the pages relating to the career of Greater Europe in colonial and semi-colonial regions of the world. The execution of the Romanoffs is no more heinous than the execution of Charles Stuart by the English or that of Louis Capet and Marie Antoinette by the French Terror, and we make bold to say that nothing done by the "Russian Communists" could exceed in savagery Frederick Cooper's butchery of 500 innocent Indians, tied in batches of ten, in revenge for the death of two Englishmen during the Indian Mutiny which was recalled in these columns last Friday week. Nor can anything be cited from the annals of the Bolshevik Terror much more frightful than the British massacre of Indians in the Jallian wallah Bagh at Amritsar or the similar application of the British principle of "preventive massacre" at Shanghai on May 30 and in the Shameen on June 23, 1925. And as the owners of the "Yi Shih Pao" are Americans, they may be reminded of the daily atrocities committed by their fellow-countrymen in the "Negro" states of the American Union where black men are tortured and burnt alive in public.

A Kuomintang Postulate

As regards the introduction of Communism into China, we Chinese nationalists are in no fear of what is essentially an Imperialist and reactionary bogey. Quite apart from the well-established fact that there is no Communism in Soviet Russia today, we hold with Dr. Sun Yat-sen—the founder and deathless leader of the Nationalist movement in China—that, even if the Soviet ideal of a Communist State were practicable before great changes in men's thoughts and passions and desires had come to pass, the conditions do not exist for the successful introduction of a system of Communism into China. This is a postulate in Kuomintang political doctrine which underlies the whole political thought of the Nationalist movement. The aim of Nationalist China is the achievement of real independence and international equality through the abolition of the Unequal Treaties and, working on this new foundation of freedom, the transformation of the elements and institutions of the mediaeval polity of China into what must inevitably take the form and structure of a modern bourgeois state. Soviet Russia as the friend and ally of Nationalist China accepts this political philosophy of the Chinese situation. And if only because of this fundamental and realist reason, there is and can be no Soviet intention to Bolshevise or Communise China.

HOW MOSCOW MOURNS LENIN DEATH AT ITS ANNIVERSARY

By Arthur Ransome

In the Manchester Guardian
Moscow, January 23. — In connection with the anniversary of Lenin's death, the newspapers print some of his unpublished manuscripts, including one of the rough drafts of his answers to questions put to him on behalf of the "Manchester Guardian" in 1922.

The town is hung with red flags with black mourning borders. Many meetings are being held in memory of him, and a considerable pilgrimage is being made to his tomb, including a number of pilgrims from distant towns and villages. Last evening a solemn sitting of the Moscow Soviet, with other organisations, was held in the Great Theatre, all the decorations of which were draped in black muslin. The theatre was crammed with people. When the curtain, with wild half-Cubist picture of the revolution, was pulled aside, the members on the stage were disclosed sitting on scarlet benches under black arches.

Audience Stands

At 6.55, the moment of Lenin's death, the whole audience stood while the orchestra played the funeral march and a magic lantern threw a portrait of Lenin on the loose curtains at the back of the stage. Lunacharsky spoke on the part played by Lenin's personality in the revolution, and, even at this memorial meeting, devoted much of his speech to a discussion of the dispute in the party, in which he definitely described the opposition as an opposition on the Left, and reaffirmed that though the new economic policy was certainly resulting in the growth of the rich peasantry, yet they had no intention of arresting the general growth of the country for fear of the growth of the rich peasant.

During the singing of the "Internationale" a transformation scene was in progress at the back of the stage ending in the disclosure of a brilliantly illuminated hammer and sickle on a background of prismatic sunrise. Then a cinematograph film was shown illustrating scenes from Lenin's life and the history of Russia during the revolution, while the orchestra played Wagner's "Siegfried." Finally, there was a concert at which Beethoven's "Eroica" Symphony was played and Lenin's favourite revolutionary song was sung by the choir of the great theatre.

At the Mausoleum.

More impressive was the much less elaborately organised scene on the Red Square. There was no comfortably-seated audience, but small groups hurrying over the snow to take their places in a long queue waiting to pass through the mausoleum before the glass-lidded coffin. A solitary flag lit by a lamp above the Kremlin was dropped to half-mast, where it could be seen high overhead in the darkness.

This morning there was a similar scene. There was damp in the air, the trees were white, and the walls of the Kremlin were grey with encrusted snows. All day long delegations with flags have been crossing the broad, white square. All day long people have been passing through the mausoleum. Many workmen were carrying their children. When I left in the afternoon an apparently endless black procession with red flags was still moving under the Kremlin wall.

Johns Hopkins Puts Stop To Graduation Without Education

U. S. University Makes "Intellectual Progress", Not Passing Of Examination The Test For Degrees

United Press
Baltimore, March 3. — A revolutionary step in educational concepts was announced here today by the Provost of Johns Hopkins University.

Hereafter, the Provost made known, degrees will be conferred upon Johns Hopkins students, not upon the acquisition of a set number of credits, but "upon the faculty's decision that sufficient intellectual progress has been made."

This move is understood to come as a revulsion from the growing practice of graduating from American institutions large numbers of students who have "bucked" for examinations sufficiently to pass the formal requirements but who are, in point of fact, not possessed of the education which should go with a university degree.

The manipulation of the instrument is very simple. Signals from Japan can be received by this improved instrument.

Austrian Workers Praise Soviet Work Of Reconstruction

Delegation Writes After Visit To Moscow; "Saw Enough To Refute Lies and Calumnies Circulated Abroad."

United Press
Moscow, March 3. — "Izvestia" publishes a statement written by the delegation of Austrian workers visiting Soviet Russia together with the facsimile of the delegates, in which they say:

"The Austrian Workers' Delegation is leaving Moscow to visit Georgia via Kiev and Ekaterinoslav. The delegation has taken advantage of its stay in Moscow to visit factories and see how work is conducted there and also to come into close contact with the organisations of the Russian Trade Union Movement. The impression we have obtained of all that we have seen completely refutes the lies and calumnies circulated abroad about Soviet Russia. We see a country engaged in socialist construction, a country in which the masses of the toilers and bound by the tie of common labour and together are forging new forms of social life.

"The information and statistics which we received here from the official organisations we tested in personal observation and conversations with workers, both communists and non-communists and we found that all that we had been told was correct." Then follows the facsimile of the signatures.

TRIBUNE DIARY

Danish Flyers Come

Kuo Wen

The Chinese Aeronautical Department has granted permission to the Danish flyers through the Danish Legation in Peking, to land in Peking this month, when they will fly from Denmark to Tokyo. The aviators will leave Copenhagen on the 10th, inst., and expect to reach Peking on the 27th, inst., weather conditions proving favorable.

The Chinese Government in allowing the airmen to stop at the Capital, insisted upon the following regulations being observed, viz: That the flyers land at a point in Peking designated by the Chinese authorities.

That they be subject to a search of their machines and persons, on the part of the Chinese authorities.

That they must not carry cameras, mails, or surveying apparatus.

On their arrival in Peking the Danish airmen will be accorded a reception by Chinese officials.

Goes To Oxford

Swarthmore, Pa. — Theodore C. Hume, Yale, 25, son of Edward H. Hume, president of the Yale-in-China Club, Changsha, China, has been elected Rhodes scholar at large from the United States, Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore College, American secretary to the Rhodes trustees, announced today.

Preparatory to entering the Ministry, Hume is spending this year at Sorbonne University under a French Governmental scholarship, and will enter Oxford University in October.

Sacrifice To Confucius

Chung Mei

Preparation for the spring-sacrifice to Confucius is under way by the Ministry of the Interior, which has requested the government departments concerned to send a list of officials who will participate.

The ceremony is scheduled for the 19th and will be held at the Confucius Temple in the north city. There will be the usual use of the old musical instruments, which is one of the most interesting sights in Peking.

In the past it has been the practice to have a dress rehearsal before the ceremony, to which admittance may be gained by ticket, a very limited number being issued.

The sacrifice itself takes place shortly after dawn and none but participants are permitted to watch. In years past the president was the chief figure, but it is not announced who will function this spring.

REJECT U.S. RAILWAY CONSOLIDATION PLAN

United Press

Washington, March 3. — The plan for consolidation of several of the greatest railroads in the United States under headship of the "Nickel Plate" interests has been disappointed.

By this scheme the Nickel Plate, Chesapeake and Ohio, Erie and Lehigh Valley, among others, would have been merged, but the plan was attacked before the Interstate Commerce Commission here by stockholders in three of the leading lines who said they would not receive adequate protection under the plan as drafted.

TROTSKY ON EUROPE

Famed Russ Leader Shows capitalist Europe between fire of American technical Superiority and Russia's revolutionary philosophy

Leon Trotsky, former Soviet War Minister, says Europe is in a precarious position between two forces—the dollar of America and the socialist form of government of Russia—and is moving toward greater difficulties, in a speech delivered before the Second All-Union Congress of the Association of Political Convicts and Exiles in Moscow.

Trotsky made a report on the Revolution of 1905, the twentieth anniversary of which was recently celebrated. He made a detailed analysis of the Revolution, pointing out the causes of its defeat and the connection between the events which happened twenty years ago and the Revolution of 1917 which abolished the Tsarist regime in Russia.

Speaking of the present world situation, Trotsky said: "The old Europe, the hearth of all capitalist culture, is bifurcated, one side being America and on the other Russia, now the Soviet Union. Europe is therefore between two fires."

Awake Sleeping Forces

"Not only did Europe discover America but it brought the country up. During a series of religious movement and revolutions Europe sent overseas its most active and enterprising children, or better to say, step-children. The emigrants—agriculturists, squatters, carpenters and locksmiths—awoke the sleeping forces of the new world. The business spirit, the discipline of labour, the puritan yearning toward amassing wealth—these seeds Europe sowed on American soil and they have given a plentiful harvest."

"After escaping from the narrow cages of Europe to the bright spaces of America, the technical genius developed with surprising rapidity. Even before the war, America had left its former mother country, England, and its broader mother country, Europe, far behind. When, after the war and after an attempt to live according to war methods, Europe tried to live on a peaceful basis and stock of itself, it saw with horror that it was an economical pygmy compared with the transoceanic colossus.

"Europe gave birth to America. Without Europe there would be no sky-scrapers in New York, no power house at Niagara Falls, no Ford motor cars and tractors. But Europe, embroiled in the network of its conservatism, was impotent as compared with America. The dollar has a tremendous influence over Europe. Step by step, Europe has been driven into a corner as America makes intolerable living conditions for Europeans. Europe has no escape."

Between Two Fires

"Burning in the fire of war, Europe pushed the technical powers of America as it pushed the revolutionary thought of Russia. America did not lavishly squander what it received and it perfected the technical thought to the utmost. We, too, did not lavishly squander what we received, the revolutionary thought. Instead we enriched it by the experiences of the years 1905 and 1917."

"And now the bourgeois Europe stands between two fires: between America with its dollar, and the dollar is a mighty force when it is numerous, and the Soviet Union, which aims to combine the socialist form of government with American technical genius."

"As great as our difficulties may be to-day or to-morrow, they are as nothing compared with the difficulties toward which the bourgeois Europe moves."

FIRST KUOMINCHUN GOES

Peking from Honan early this morning. He is en route to Kalgan to seek the aid of General Chang Chih-kiang for the Honan Kuominchun.

Yueh in Loyang

Tupan Yueh Wei-chun of Honan after evacuating Chengchow moved west toward Loyang, where he is at present, although he is expected to continue moving.

Other forces of the 2nd Kuominchun are moving along the northern bank of the Yellow River. Yesterday four train loads of them reached Changteh where they joined Fang Chen wu's command.

Chengchow was taken over by General Chin Yun-ao on Tuesday afternoon having been evacuated that morning by Tupan Yueh Wei-chun. Shensi provincials in that city were arrested by order of General Chin.

Expect Clash Soon

An open clash between the anti-Wu Pei-fu faction and those that side with him is predicted in Hupeh shortly. Liu Tso-lung and Lu Chin-shan are reported to have started a military movement against Chen Chia-mo and Tu Hsi-chun, against which the latter are making preparations.

A movement started to induce Tupan Fang Peng-jen of Kiangsi, who hands the "chaban" against Wu Pei-fu, to maintain peace and order in Hupeh seems to be fruitless as the Tupan rejects the idea.

Shansi reinforcements are reported to be concentrating at Hu Lu, thirty Li from Shihchia-chwang. This movement is interpreted by local Kuominchun authorities as indicating an intention of Tupan Yen Shi-shan to help the 2nd Kuominchun through the mediation of the 1st.

Intellectuals Are Pointing The Way to Peace, Says Einstein

Paris Meeting Dedicated To New Solidarity Regardless Of Race, Say Participants

Paris, Jan. 19 — A reception was given in the Town Hall by the municipality yesterday, in honor of the numerous distinguished foreigners here in connection with the official inauguration of the International Institution for Intellectual Co-operation. On Tuesday the intellectuals of all nations were welcomed at the Sorbonne. The highest promise for the future of the world is seen in the cultural contacts thus organized.

Advantage has been taken of the occasion to obtain an interview with Professor Einstein, the German savant famous for his law of relativity. Professor Einstein said: "It is a great moral enterprise, which France should consider privileged to direct. Our task as technicians in physical science is to serve. In our sphere we wish to collaborate in the task of peacemaking, which should be the profound desire of every man and every nation. It is unpleasant but necessary, to observe that today the germs of discord and pretexts of hatred are not entirely destroyed between peoples."

"Nevertheless, from the course of these meetings in Paris, I am convinced there is sincere good will and generosity of heart among those participating, and I find precious reasons for encouragement, perseverance and hope. The greatest good of men is peace, and the promotion of intellectual relations and the coordination of thoughts will consolidate peace. I believe today is an important date in the calendar of international history."

Edouard Daladier, Minister of Education, declared that the institute was a durable organ of liaison between the intellectuals of all countries, assuring them of the best instruments for their work and creating common interests. The very existence of the institute was a striking affirmation of the grand law of solidarity. Fraternal collaboration, regardless of race, was imperatively necessary.

tung and the Kuominchun extends over the River Han, north of Paoting and Tacheng, north of Machang. The combine forces made several attempts at crossing the River, but each time they did so, they were repulsed. Each is hard pressing on the other and no decisive battle has yet been fought. So far no big fight has taken place near Tientsin.

Lu May Be Tapan

Tientsin, Mar. 4:—Rumour is prevalent here that Lu Chung-lin will have the appointment as Tapan and Liu Chi as Civil Governor of Chihli. It is further rumoured that Li Ming-chung will be the Commander-in-Chief of the Guard Army of Peking. As for General Sun Yueh, the Tapan, it is said, he may retire from his post in time now that his health is not so good as before his recent illness.

COOLIDGE ECONOMY EXTENDS EVEN TO THE ROOF OVER HIS HEAD

Asiatic

Berlin, March 3.—President Coolidge is unwilling to grant the 500,000 dollars necessary for repairing the roof of the White House at Washington.

GERMANY MAY DECLINE

whatever their intrinsic merits.

A similar Labourite motion adds: "Apart from other considerations, increased permanent seats in order to accommodate the claims of other nations than Germany could be regarded as a variation of the Locarno Agreement and ought not to be supported by the British Government."

To Be Secret

Asiatic

Berlin, March 4.—The decisions reached in the British cabinet meeting on Wednesday are not to be made known until Sir Austen Chamberlain arrives at Geneva according to the "Daily News", but London circles say that Sir Austen Chamberlain is now in favour of settling the League Council dispute by either letting a special committee consider the demands of the various nations or by offering Poland a non-permanent seat in the Council.

The German delegates to Geneva will probably be officially appointed in the Wednesday afternoon session of the German Cabinet which is the cabinet's last meeting before the Geneva conference.

M. Briand, Chamberlain and Poland's Foreign Minister Skrzynski will leave Paris in the same train on Saturday.

To Eliminate Rush

Reuter

Brussels, March 3.—In the Chamber today M. Vandervelde, the Foreign Minister, referring to the question of the Council of the League of Nations, said that Belgium had periodically run the risk of not having her seat renewed and he thought it desirable to counter this risk by means of a regulation fixing definitely the duration of such mandates and the conditions of re-election. This regulation had been framed and, if ratified by Spain, would come into force as an amendment to Article 4 of the Covenant.

He declared that it was a serious mistake to describe the new candidatures for permanent seats on the Council as a counterpoise to the entry of Germany, and spoke of the possibility that other States than the present candidates might demand permanent seats on the Council.

GERMAN NATIONALISTS

a convert to democracy. It was decided that he must be removed from his post if a catastrophe were to be avoided.

Not content with this, however, it was also decided to discredit Mahraun in the eyes of his followers. To this end, a charge of treason was brought against him, based on his repeated conversations with French journalists and politicians, to whom he is alleged to have revealed the secrets of the Nationalist movement.

Whether or not anything will come of this charge, remains to be seen.

But even if Mahraun is forced off the political stage the causes which brought about this downfall will remain. The real issues, veiled by personal vituperations, are Locarno and the League. Mahraun and his followers support the present German foreign policy—co-operation with the enemies of yesterday. The die-hard nationalists, on the other hand, denounce this Western orientation. The favor political and economic unity with Russia. National Bolshevism, that almost forgotten slogan of two years ago, has again come into prominence here and its advocates are apparently determined to stop at nothing to gain their ends.

Thus the Council would be compelled to create fresh permanent members and consequently to increase the number of non-permanent seats. In this way they would have a Council of 18, 20 or even more members and the result of the Assembly might be discredited by comparison with the Council, which would include nearly all of the politically important States, while the States who were members of the Council would suffer a dangerous loss of influence and there would inevitably arise an unwieldy Council with a small committee which would be the really decisive body.

M. Vandervelde concluded by re-echoing Sir Austen Chamberlain's desire to go to Geneva with free hands to seek a conciliatory solution.

C. T. Wang Informs Merchants On Status Of Tariff Questions

Conference Reaching Agreement On Surtaxes; Customs To Be Divided Between Foreign And Chinese Banks.

Kuo Wen

Dr. C. T. Wang, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in an interview with a delegation of the National Union of Chambers of Commerce at the Chu Jen Tang on Tuesday afternoon, said that the Chinese delegation was now discussing with the foreign delegates to the Special Customs Conference the immediate enforcement of the Washington Conference rate of 2.5 per cent. As to the rate of the interim surtax which will come into force after the new treaty has been ratified by the powers, no decision has been reached, but the Chinese Government is trying to secure a rate which will produce sufficient revenue to enable it to meet the losses resulting from the abolition of the likin and also administrative expenses and the consolidation of the Government's foreign obligations.

The stand of the Chinese merchants as disclosed to Dr. C. T. Wang by the delegation is that the interim surtax on ordinary goods should be fixed at 7.25 per cent and that on luxuries at 30 per cent.

Customs Treasury

In reply to a question concerning the establishment of a public treasury to handle the customs receipts, Dr. Wang said that the plan of the Government is to place a part of the funds destined for the service of Chinese loans with certain Chinese banks designated by the Government, while those intended for the repayment of foreign loans will be held by foreign banks.

The delegates urged that a reciprocal tariff treaty should be concluded between China and Russia, as all Sino-Russian commercial treaties concluded before the introduction of the present regime in Russia have been declared null and void. Dr. Wang said that when a new tariff treaty is to be concluded with Soviet Russia, the Chinese National Tariff Law will be taken into consideration so that the treaty will not run counter to its regulations.

On the question of the taxation of goods manufactured by foreign factories in China Dr. Wang said that they should pay the same duties as the products of Chinese factories in future. But the Government will issue special regulations governing the encouragement of Chinese infant industries.

Reciprocal Treaties

Concerning the question of reciprocal treatment of foreign goods in China, Dr. Wang declared that a special commission is being organized with representatives from the Ministries of Finance, Foreign Affairs, Agriculture and Commerce and the Customs Administration. This commission will be charged with the task of drafting regulations governing this subject.

The delegates said that the schedule of prices of various foreign commodities imported into China is due for revision this year and urged that it should be revised once a year henceforward. Dr. Wang expressed sympathy with this view, but said that for some time one or two foreign employees of the Chinese Government will be appointed to assist in this task.

Concerning the report that Mr. Strawn, the American Delegate to the Customs Conference, had proposed a separate agreement regarding the taxation of foreign tobacco products in China, the delegates of the Union of Chambers of Commerce said that the Union is of the opinion that the agreement between the British and American Tobacco Company and the Wine and Tobacco Administration is of a private nature and should not be brought up before the Tariff Conference for consideration. Secondly, the collection of a special tobacco tax is an internal problem of the Chinese Government with which foreigners have no right to interfere, especially as the proceeds of this are devoted to educational purposes.

In reply Dr. Wang said that the American delegate took a very reasonable attitude of the case and did not share the view of the British and American

JUDGE PLANS FINE THEFTS; COMMUNISTS CALL FOR JUSTICE

Asiatic

Berlin, March 3. — The Director of the German Special State Courts, Herr Jurgens, who formerly was a member of the German Supreme Court, is being tried for cheating an insurance company by arranging fake robberies. The communists demand an investigation of all lawsuits presided over by Jurgens who, they claim, sent many communists to prison for robberies faked by himself.

TO MAKE DYES LESS HARMFUL TO LABOR

Tass

Moscow, March 3. — Prof. Voznesenski claims to have discovered a method of reducing the harmfulness of aniline dyes for workers handling these dyes by more than 50 percent and hopes in the near future to render them almost completely harmless. This was explained at a conference of chemists held at the Institute for the Protection of Labour. As a result of investigation made with regard to the conditions of labour in three of the principal textile mills in Moscow, it was discovered that by the present method of employing a aniline dyes nearly half of the chemical properties of the dye is wasted by evaporating into the air and thus rendering the latter harmful to the workers. Prof. Voznesenski's formula for aniline dye preparations will reduce the evaporation in the course of the employment of the dyes and at the same time will do much to improve the health conditions of textile mills.

SHANGHAI STRIKE SITUATION TENSE

Kuo Wen

Shanghai, March 3. — Matters in connection with the strike in the Japanese cotton mills appear to have assumed a very grave aspect and the trouble is extending to nearly all Japanese mills here. The Japanese owners have expressed their readiness to discuss and find a fundamental solution of the problem so as to prevent further occasion for trouble in the future, but no one, representing the Chinese side, can be approached for negotiation and the matter is still left in abeyance, pending mediation.

Briton Has Own Ideas On History

London. — According to A. M. Samuel, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the "three pivotal events affecting the destiny of mankind" are:

1. The flooding of Athens, which enabled mosquitos to settle there, with the result that Athenian civilization perished.
2. The first load of herrings brought to Great Britain from the Baltic exchange for British wool, thus setting up Great Britain's world-wide system of trade.
3. The discovery of India owing to mankind's craving for pepper to disguise the taste of half-spoiled food.

Tobacco Company. Mr. Yao Kuo-tseng, Director of the Wine and Tobacco Administration had declared to the American delegate that he was opposed to the existing practice of various provinces collecting a tobacco tax in their respective territory and that a new arrangement should be made whereby the import and export duties on tobacco will be fixed at 27.5 and 26 per cent respectively. Part of the proceeds of this duty will go toward compensating the losses of the provincial authorities as a result of the abolition of the cigarette tax. The arrangement has met with the approval of the American delegation.

Dr. Wang concluded the interview by expressing agreement with the delegates regarding the protection of artificial indigo, the manufacture of which forms one of the most important industries of China.

TO STOP KIDNAPPING OF IMMATURE GIRLS

Tass

Moscow, March 2. — It is reported from Chita that the Government of the Buriat-Mongolian Republic is taking measures to combat the barbarous custom that still exists among the more conservative of the population of kidnapping immature girls. The Buriat-Mongolian Government has added a new clause to the criminal code, which provides that cases of kidnapping of immature girls with the view to wedlock shall be regarded at law on a par with criminal assault, and therefore will be liable to the penalty imposed for the latter offence.

PEKING-HANKOW RY. SERVICE AT STANDSTILL

Kuo Wen

Conditions on the Peking-Hankow Railway, owing to troop movements, are going from bad to worse. In addition to troop trains only one passenger train left Peking for Honan Wednesday. This train went as far as Changhsien. The Peking-Hankow Express which left here at ten o'clock on Monday evening was able to proceed only to Shihchiachwang. On arrival there, it was impeded by hostilities which were in progress, and thereupon turned back to Peking, reaching here at about nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

Wednesday afternoon many passengers waited on the Kinhan Station platform, for a Southward-bound train, but were disappointed. The service to Paoting and Honan has been suspended since the 2nd, instant.

U. S.-ITALIAN DEBT BEFORE SENATE SOON

United Press
